ALPINE TWIN PEAK CHALLENGE

CLIMB 2021 IN 2021

6-9 JUNE

A unique opportunity to climb 2,021 metres in 2021

Head to the beautiful, iconic mountain town of Chamonix in the French Alps to take on a very special challenge. A chance to get back outside in the fresh air, far away from the crowds to hike heights more than twice that of Mt Snowdon as we climb 2,021 metres for charity in 2021. After each big day in the most stunning outdoor surroundings, we return to impressive Alpine chalets for three-course meals and a glass of wine.

6 June – Arrive in Chamonix in the evening and settle in to the chalet before having drinks & dinner together as we run through the next two days' activities; then head to bed for a good night's sleep.

7 June – Breakfast and head out to climb up to 2,285 metres through beautiful forest and across a long ridge, arriving at spectacular views of the Mont Blanc range after 1,000 metres of ascent. A long descent takes us back to Chamonix for some rest and relaxation before dinner.

8 June – Departing the chalet after breakfast, we go up to the end of the Chamonix Valley, where we will trek on the Aiguilles Rouges with Mont Blanc ahead of us. We will summit at 2,323 metres, after climbing 1,015 metres, have lunch then descend back to the valley, returning to the chalet for a celebratory meal and drinks together in the evening.

9 June – Breakfast together & depart Chamonix to head home.
