

JAMIE'S FARM MONMOUTH

Kitchen Volunteer

About Jamie's Farm

Jamie's Farm transforms the lives of disadvantaged young people displaying challenging behaviour in school, by providing a unique combination of 'farming, family and therapy' through a short stay residential and follow up programme. The charity helps children to flourish at home, in education and in the community, and works with teachers to make changes, catalysed by Jamie's Farm, last.

Position Summary

We are specifically looking for a volunteer cook, committed to a minimum of Thursday afternoon every week (1pm – 4.30pm), to work alongside small groups young people in our kitchen in Upper Redbrook, near Monmouth.

If you are interested in working in another area of the farm – art, woodwork, farming or gardening – and are able to commit to a regular slot at Monmouth, no matter how small, please feel free to get in touch.

Experience required

Ideal candidates will have experience in and passion for enabling young people, accompanied by a flair for creative cooking and knowledge of health and safety. DBS checks are mandatory.

Do you pay travel expenses?

Yes, we will pay all reasonable travel expenses to and from the farm and will provide a hearty lunch.

Start date: As soon as possible – we ask for all applications by Thursday 4th October

Apply now: Please apply online using this form. In addition to completing the form, please email Ruth at ruthyoung@jamiesfarm.org.uk with a CV and brief overview of the hours you can commit to.
