

Jamie's Farm Volunteer Horse Assistant

About Jamie's Farm

Jamie's Farm transforms the lives of disadvantaged young people, with a mixture of low self-esteem, poor behaviour and low attendance and attainment, by providing a unique combination of 'farming, family and therapy' through a five-day residential at one of our rural farms and a thorough follow-up programme. The charity helps children to flourish at home, in education and in the community, and works with teachers to make changes catalysed by Jamie's Farm last.

Position Summary

We are looking for an experienced volunteer horse assistant to check in and look after our two ponies, once or twice a week. There may be opportunities to work with children, but you will predominantly be working on your own at our stables on our beautiful farm.

Major responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Grooming;
- Feeding and watering;
- Mucking out and bedding up;
- Poo picking in the field shelter and paddock;
- Checking general health.

Essential Skills and Experience

- Ability to confidently handle horses;
- Knowledge of horse management;
- Passion and enthusiasm for horse care.

Time frame and location

- One day a week (or more if interested), ideally Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays or the weekends.
- Address: Jamie's Farm, Allington Farm, Allington Lane, Lewes, East Sussex, BN7 3QL

Do you pay travel expenses?

Yes, we will pay all reasonable travel expenses to and from the farm and will provide a hearty lunch on weekdays.
