

DIGGING DEEP

AFTERNOONS OF ENLIGHTENING DISCUSSION

Thursday 18 February, 4pm–5.30pm

When life hands you dirt, plant seeds

Jonathan Dimpleby interviews Tish Feilden

James Westhead chairs a debate:

“Vulnerable children have been hit hardest by this pandemic. What possible good can come out of it for them?”

Featuring:

Rebecca Boomer-Clark,
Director of Secondaries at Ark

Kiran Gill, Founder and Chief Executive of The Difference

Rebecca Cramer, Founder and
Executive Headteacher of Reach
Academy, Trustee of Whatever it Takes

Jake Curtis, Deputy CEO, Jamie's Farm

Plus:

An opportunity to hear Josh MacAlister, Founder of Frontline and soon to be Chair of the Independent Review of the Children's Social Care, talking to young people about their experiences.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

